Kamco Invest will be hosting a very special live webcast with Cathie Wood, CEO and CIO of ARK Invest on Wednesday 30th of June 2021 at 6.00pm (Kuwait time).

The webinar will be held in collaboration with ARK Invest and Nikko Asset Management. This unique and fascinating event will provide an opportunity to listen to Cathie's thoughts on what she believes are the five Innovation platforms: DNA sequencing, Robotics, Energy storage, Artificial Intelligence, and Blockchain technology, and much more.

Cathie is the Founder, CEO, and CIO of ARK Invest and is considered one of the most successful investors in disruptive technologies. She has been known for her big calls on disruption, innovation, and the new landscape of investing. She registered ARK Investment Management LLC ("ARK") as an investment adviser with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in January 2014. As Chief Investment Officer ("CIO") and Portfolio Manager, Cathie led the development of ARK's philosophy and investment approach and has ultimate responsibility for investment decisions.

Cathie and her team have built a hugely successful track record not just in performance, but also in audience engagement with their views on disruptive trends.
