Kamco Invest participated in the 2025 GCMA Kuwait Capital Market Conference, a premier gathering designed exclusively for industry professionals to explore the evolving landscape of capital markets in Kuwait and the region. The Company's participation reflects its role as a thought leader in the regional investment community and builds on its ongoing commitment to drive sustainable growth across the regional capital markets.

Omar Zaineddine, Executive Director of Debt Capital Markets, moderated the panel discussion titled, "Achieving Objectives Through the Debt Capital Market." The discussion explored how debt instruments are becoming central to the funding strategies of sovereigns, financial institutions, and corporates across the region. Topics included the distinctive characteristics of bonds as a financing means, the lessons that can be drawn from recent successful sovereign issuances, how the market can be leveraged to achieve broader strategic objectives, and emerging trends and innovative structures that are being proposed and introduced.

The continuous evolution of the debt capital market landscape was emphasized by Zaineddine, not merely as a source of funding, but as a strategic tool for diversification, innovation, and alignment with broader economic and sustainability goals. He also stressed the importance of collaboration between issuers, arrangers, regulators, and investors to deepen market liquidity, enhance transparency, and sustain the growth momentum in the region's debt markets.
