Muscat Stock Exchange

MSX Index <.MSX30> closed at 4,007.527 point. The market continues to move above its 100-weeks MA, despite the recent weaknesses, but needs to print a foothold above the resistance zone at 4,136 point-4,200 point to re-activate the buying momentum and open the road for additional gains to take place to 4,566 point. However, the support level at 3,911 point is expected to prevent further downward move but a fall below it will call for additional correction to 3,800 point before 3,650 point.

Medium-term and long-term investors can stay in the market with a stop-loss below 3,911 point and 3,800 point, respectively.

Al Anwar Ceramic Tiles

Reuters Ticker: <AACT.OM>

Price closed at OMR0.380. The current technical outlook is negative after forming a strong resistance level at OMR0.490, while further slippage will lead to OMR0.365 (near 38.2% level of the Fibonacci Retracements from OMR0.137-OMR0.490); however, losing this will target OMR0.315 (50% level). On the other side, back above OMR0.405 will be a positive sign that should lead to OMR0.438, but only a close above this will lead to OMR0.490.

Oman Telecommunications Co.

Reuters Ticker: <OTEL.OM>

Price closed at OMR0.712. The support level at around OMR0.700 arrested additional weaknesses but still early to confirm a reversal pattern. A jump over the first resistance line at OMR0.765 should increase the upward chances and target OMR0.844 (high of this year) once again and maybe higher to OMR0.900. However, a dip below OMR0.700 will deepen the bearish move to OMR0.604.

Technical Analysis

National Bank of Muscat

Reuters Ticker: <NBOB.OM>

Price closed at OMR0.192. As long as the price is above the horizontal line at OMR0.177, the move will be leaning more towards the bulls, knowing that managing to surpass the resistance area at OMR0.200-OMR0.208 will promote OMR0.229. However, no indication at present that the upward move is over but losing OMR0.177 will increase the downside risk in an attempt to reach the support level at OMR0.155.

Bank Muscat

Reuters Ticker: <BKMB.OM>

Price closed at OMR0.484. The stock eased down after posting a temporarily top at OMR0.510. This move is considered to be natural after a noticeable increase that led the RSI indicator to reach the overbought territory, but an aggressive negative move is not likely to take place. However, a break above OMR0.510 will target OMR0.532 (high of year 2014) and maybe higher to OMR0.600.

Definitions

Technical Analysis: Aims to identify the direction of prices and reveal any indication of possible changes as soon as possible, so it can be used as much as possible in making buying and selling decisions in the most appropriate time in order to minimize risk and maximize profits.

Trend: The general direction of a market or of the price of an asset.

Resistance: A chart point or range that caps an increase in the level of a stock or index over a period of time.

Support: The price level which, historically, a stock has had difficulty falling below. It is thought of as the level at which a lot of buyers tend to enter the stock.

Breakout: A signal that prices are beginning to trend, either upward or downward.

Bull: An investor who thinks the market, a specific security or an industry is likely to rise.

Bear: An investor who thinks the market, a specific security or an industry is likely to decline.

Channel: is two parallel trend lines either rising or declining.

Consolidation Area: is a sideways movement in prices that interrupts or reverse a trend.

Moving Average (MA): The most common applications of MAs are to identify the trend direction and to determine support and resistance levels.

MACD (Moving Average Convergence-Divergence): A trend-following momentum indicator that shows the relationship between two moving averages of prices.

Relative Strength Index: A technical momentum indicator (ranges from 0 to 100) that compares the magnitude of recent gains to recent losses in an attempt to determine overbought and oversold conditions of an asset.

Overbought: A situation in which the price of a security has risen to such a degree that an oscillator has reached its upper bound. This is generally interpreted as a sign that the price of the asset is becoming overvalued and may experience a pullback.

Oversold: A situation in which the price of a security has fallen to such a degree that an oscillator has reached its upper bound. This is generally interpreted as a sign that the price of the asset is becoming undervalued and may represent a buying opportunity for investors.

Fibonacci: A term refers to areas of support or resistance and to help identify strategic places for transactions to be placed, target prices or stop losses.

On Balance Volume (OBV): is a simple running total of up day (added) and down day (subtracted) volume. If OBV is moving with price, it confirms the current trend. Divergences between OBV and price indicates the price may be due for a reversal.
