Technical Analysis – Dubai Financial Market

16-June-2025

In this Report…

Dubai Financial Market

DFM General Index <.DFMGI> closed at 5,407.00 points. The index witnessed some weaknesses but remains supported by its close above all MAs on the weekly chart and within the long-term bullish trend line. A successful close above all-time high at 5,630 point would be a strong positive move and would confirm the formation of a continuation pattern to 5,750 point. However, losing the support line at 5,130 point could reinstate the bearish tone and lead to 4,925 point.

Medium-term and long-term investors can stay in the market with a stop-loss below 4,630 points and 4,350 points, respectively.

Air Arabia	Reuters Ticker: <AIRA.DU>

Price closed at AED3.30. The stock retreated after its failure once again to surpass the strong resistance line at AED3.63 (all-time high), knowing that only above this line would call for another leg up to AED4.00 before AED4.60. On the other side, a fall below the horizontal line at AED3.00 is expected to trigger additional weaknesses to AED2.85, while below this would lead to AED2.600.

Emirates Integrated Telecommunications Co.	Reuters Ticker: <DU.DU>

Price closed at AED9.20. The price remains within the ascending trend line and above all MAs on the weekly chart, knowing that a firm close above the all-time high at AED9.50 would be enough to anticipate a jump to AED10.60 and maybe higher to AED11.20. However, losses should be limited to the support level at AED8.31, but a dip below it would lead to the next defense line at AED7.22.

Union Properties

Reuters Ticker: <UPRO.DU>

Price closed at AED0.647. The stock maintains a close within the positive territory, while further gains are primed to a jump over the horizontal line at AED0.718 (high of this year), a case if happens would open the road for a re-test of the resistance level at AED0.830. On the negative side, only a fall below the support level at AED0.530 could delay the upward move and lead to AED0.465.

Dubai Investments

Reuters Ticker: <DINV.DU>
