Qatar Stock Exchange

QE Index <.QSI> closed at 9,695.320 point. The bias remains positive and further advance towards the psychological resistance level at 10,000 point is likely to take place on the coming period, knowing that above this will confirm a gradual increase to the high of last year at 10,810 point. However, a break below the support zone at 9,400 point-9,300 point will delay the upward move and trigger the horizontal line at 9,000 point.

Medium-term investors can stay in the market with a stop-loss below 9,400 point, while long-term investors can enter the market above 9,760 point.

Reuters Ticker: <IQCD.QA>

Price closed at QAR8.918. The stock has successfully broken above the upper-end of the 18-months descending trend line and shows promise for additional gains to QAR10.800, which if broken would target QAR12.650. On the counter side, a fall back below the tiny support level at QAR7.600 could put pressure on this year low at QAR6.390 but below this will re-instate the bearish move and lead to QAR5.220.

Qatar Gas Transport Co.

Reuters Ticker: <QGTS.QA>

Price closed at QAR2.819. The stock is near its multi-year high at QAR2.920 (high of last month), while a close above this along with its continuous close above all MAS on the weekly chart will re-activate the buying momentum and lead to the next layer of resistance at QAR3.170 before QAR3.380. However, there could be some attempts to go down, knowing that the nearby support levels are located at QAR2.580 and QAR2.240.

Technical Analysis

Qatar Navigation Co.

Reuters Ticker: <QNNC.QA>

Price closed at QAR6.025. The stock has been moving sideways for the last couple of weeks and needs to show buying interest above the recent high at QAR6.045 to end the neutral mode and open the space to fulfill the next target price at QAR6.700 before the critical line at QAR7.630. On the other side, losing the horizontal level at QAR5.500 will most likely trigger a re-test of this year low at QAR4.610.

Barwa Real Estate Co.

Reuters Ticker: <BRES.QA>

Price closed at QAR3.314. The stock needs to escape out of the 1-month trading range of QAR3.400-QAR3.150 to anticipate the next direction, knowing that a jump over QAR3.400 would confirm another leg up to the strong resistance level at QAR4.180. However, a dip below QAR3.150 will allow a slippage to QAR2.750 but only below the low of last April at QAR2.523 will turn the picture negative.

Technical Analysis 3

Definitions

Technical Analysis: Aims to identify the direction of prices and reveal any indication of possible changes as soon as possible, so it can be used as much as possible in making buying and selling decisions in the most appropriate time in order to minimize risk and maximize profits.

Trend: The general direction of a market or of the price of an asset.

Resistance: A chart point or range that caps an increase in the level of a stock or index over a period of time.

Support: The price level which, historically, a stock has had difficulty falling below. It is thought of as the level at which a lot of buyers tend to enter the stock.

Breakout: A signal that prices are beginning to trend, either upward or downward.

Bull: An investor who thinks the market, a specific security or an industry is likely to rise.

Bear: An investor who thinks the market, a specific security or an industry is likely to decline.

Channel: is two parallel trend lines either rising or declining.

Consolidation Area: is a sideways movement in prices that interrupts or reverse a trend.

Moving Average (MA): The most common applications of MAs are to identify the trend direction and to determine support and resistance levels.

MACD (Moving Average Convergence-Divergence): A trend-following momentum indicator that shows the relationship between two moving averages of prices.

Relative Strength Index: A technical momentum indicator (ranges from 0 to 100) that compares the magnitude of recent gains to recent losses in an attempt to determine overbought and oversold conditions of an asset.

Overbought: A situation in which the price of a security has risen to such a degree that an oscillator has reached its upper bound. This is generally interpreted as a sign that the price of the asset is becoming overvalued and may experience a pullback.

Oversold: A situation in which the price of a security has fallen to such a degree that an oscillator has reached its upper bound. This is generally interpreted as a sign that the price of the asset is becoming undervalued and may represent a buying opportunity for investors.

Fibonacci: A term refers to areas of support or resistance and to help identify strategic places for transactions to be placed, target prices or stop losses.

On Balance Volume (OBV): is a simple running total of up day (added) and down day (subtracted) volume. If OBV is moving with price, it confirms the current trend. Divergences between OBV and price indicates the price may be due for a reversal.
